Dear Mr. Bloom

We are pleased with the lighting installation at our Farmington New England Airfoil Products facility and highly recommend ESCO to those considering such work. I appreciate the time and attention to detail that brought the project to a successful conclusion on time without interruption to our daily operations. We look forward to the energy savings, reduced maintenance and the improved light quality as important advantages to our future goals. Thanks to all at ESCO for a job well done.

Sincerely,

Alan Chadwick
